

GRADUATE STUDENT POSITIONS in the ROLLMANN LAB

at the  University of CINCINNATI

The lab focuses on understanding the mechanisms underlying behavior and chemosensation in insects.

We examine the evolution of olfactory behavior across insect species, with a particular interest in cactophilic Drosophila, to understand the mechanisms underlying host plant preference.

For more information contact:

Dr. Stephanie Rollmann at

stephanie.rollmann@uc.edu